(a) 27 7 97 24924 Fate (2376) His work is a patchwork of good and bad points. No difficulty to have been badly trained or not trained at all. He has little power of addressing to all the details of his work. There are evidences in his records that in some subjects he works hard, and with satisfactory results. Yet other parts of the work are most unsatisfactory, and evidences carelessness in speech and manner, he is not as polished as a teacher should be. I have in many occasions drawn attention to his style which is slovenly and strangely expressionless. '98 fair
