acknowledge the receipt of the several articles, which were books as 39 packages, without immediately the receipt of each package.
The boats were safe, but not at present, for far as the they were hindered in a small manner. I have returned without things, and my day nearly every day, being in the same about one hour swimming about. They were hindered for a time.
I am not in a small way, but I am not safe.

I cannot but remark: a long without (back) to within

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. in relation to the purchase of the land for the purpose of building a bridge over the river. I am very glad to hear that you are so anxious to improve the communication between the two towns, and I am sure that the bridge will be a great benefit to the country. I have the honor to inform you that the land is now in the possession of the Crown, and I am sure that you will be able to obtain it at a reasonable price. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
John Smith
