	25 11 10	10 Smyth	has been exceptional & thorough in all he has done. As a Science teacher has few superiors & as a teacher of Chemistry & Physics he is well & favourably known throughout the Province. I regret very much to lose his services & shall be glad to welcome him back to the Normal Staff at any time. (Sgd)
	18 12 11	12/783 Schae	Has rendered invaluable assistance in the training of Students in their practical work during the year. Shows tact & judgment in dealing with weak & inexperienced Students & is a very good organizer & has carried out the duties of Supervising Critic Teacher with diligence & success. (Sgd)

	26 11 12	13/12 1298 Mc Rae	A very good teacher. Continues to give very fine work in the discipline & supervision of the Practice Teachers. Shows much tact & judgment in dealing with them & has very good relations with the pupils. Is a capable & conscientious teacher & a very valuable member of the staff. (Sgd)
	24 5 13	31/12/13 6 Mc Rae	Has acted as Master of Method in charge of teachers of Practice Work in Physical Geography. Has shown considerable ability, both in addition to his work. Very studious & gratefully received from him. Obtained also for Psychology. Passed 100
	16 12 18	15662 Mc Rae	Has brought valuable experience as an officer. Has again conducted Practice as a teacher in Psychology & Education, & has acted as Master of Method. His sympathy & cheerfulness make him especially suited to guide the young teachers. 100
	30 6 14	1st Smyth 10079	Mr. Judge Clarkson has performed his duties at this College during our last year in the same thoughtful and conscientious manner as has always distinguished the performance of his duties. He has not only from his knowledge & experience of the work of the Normal School been able to advise from time to time the Principal & Vice-Principal in matters of importance, but has also rendered valuable assistance in the Practice Work. His judgment and tact in dealing with teachers and students are most satisfactory. He has had considerable experience in training teachers and students. 100
	20 11 14	14/1612 2nd Smyth	He has continued to act throughout the year as one of the Masters of Method. He has also visited the same Schools as last year, and has come to the same sound and correct judgment which I have always found to be characteristic of his work. His relations with Headmasters, Assistant Teachers, Inspectors, Students & College Students have shown that he deals with difficult questions in a tactful way. He has been a great assistance to me in the Practice Work. 100
