John Apted Fairhall (Continued)

Roll No.	Classification.	Authority.	Remarks.
781		26 9 17 H. Hurley	A good teacher. His pleasant manner secures the confidence of his pupils. His teaching is good, but could be more effective by showing the chart of moral & intellectual progress more on his pupils.
		7 3 18 H. "	A good teacher. His management is very good & shows improvement in regard to details. There is still room for improvement. His pupils do fairly well at the Proficiency. 87
6. 1. 145		26 6 18 Jr. Roll
		18 4 18 H. Hurley	A good teacher. His general disposition gains the willing cooperation of his pupils. His methods are in the main good, and his management is decorous. His teaching might go home with greater success and clearness. 88
		17 3 19 H. "	A good teacher of the reasoning process, but needs to pay closer attention to the details of organization. Methods are on good lines generally. Mental inspection and marks of differentiation are more searching. 79
		2 9 19 H. "	A good teacher. His management is general and shows improvement in regard to details. Tones response from his pupils. His methods are on good lines throughout, but might afford greater scope for independent thinking and self-expression. 87
		17 3 20 H. "	A very good teacher on the whole. His management is good & he endeavours to secure effort, but results are not always as satisfactory as he desires. Tones great work from his pupils who make good progress generally. 85
V. 3. 187		1 7 20 Jr. Roll
		20 7 20 H. "	A good teacher possessing a pleasing personality. He is dealing with his pupils. His management is very good, although there are some incompleteness & defects. Endeavours to keep levels by placing the onus of mental work effort more on his pupils. 87
		17 2 21 H. Hurley	A very good teacher. Has a nice sympathetic way of dealing with his pupils. His management is on the merit, ability. Attitude: Response to instruction in an earnest & manner that is measurably as one would expect. 87
V. 1. 601		24 6 21 Jr. Roll
		14 9 21 H. Hurley	His kindly way of dealing with his pupils secures willing effort and a model school tone. His management is very good, though there is some incompleteness in details. The little school has made good progress under the circumstances. 87
		20 3 22 H. "	His management is generally well adapted. His fund of stimulating manner secures interested effort from his pupils. His methods are on the whole on educative lines & results good to very good. 88
		14 9 22 H. "	He is careful & painstaking in his preparation of his work. Gains the willing cooperation of his pupils who do great work. His lessons have plenty of body in them, but his presentation is wanting in some that an object success good to very good. Keeps his room in very nice order. 88
		7 3 23 H. Gill	Year opening out his duties with earnestness & judgement. Encourages v.g. cooperation & possesses v.g. questioning & descriptive power. Encourages pure speech & good literature. 88
		10 10 23 H. "	Possesses a bright cheerful personality, displays an energetic alertness towards all phases of his duties & should do v.g. work in a school which would give ampler scope for his energies. 90
2963		24 335	Transferred 12 January 1924 Appted. H.T. from 13 January 1924
		25 6 24 Dalgoune	He is a conscientious reliable teacher who carefully prepares his work. He deals sympathetically with the two pupils, but should endeavour a more forceful manner & should pay closer attention to the difficulties of the individual. When he has adapted himself to the conditions of his new work he will be capable of winning v.g. results. 88
V. 1. 4. 24		27 6 24 Jr. Roll
		2 11 24 Dalgoune	He adopts a sympathetic attitude towards the pupils & is developing a strong sense in them. He must endeavour, but should pay more attention to the removal of the difficulties of the individual. He is taking v.g. such interest in district & community movements. 89
		27 4 25 "	He does v.g. work as a citizen of the community in connection with district educational movements. He gives a pleasing class lessons, reads his pupils sympathetically, but does not pay sufficient attention to the difficulties of the individual & to the details of organization. 88
		24 8 25 "	He has a v.g. attitude towards his duties & shows to advantage in connection with extra school activities. He has not won the best effort from his pupils because control has not been sufficiently firm. The standard reached in the various school activities is not as high as is usually found in a normal school. 88
		11 6 26 "	He is a hard-working conscientious teacher who has paid much closer attention to the details of the organization, who has developed a better working atmosphere in the school. Since last visit, he has done much to raise the standard of work. 89
		16 8 26 Anchen	A conscientious industrious teacher who experiences difficulty in securing a good general tone. Aims at good standards & secures a good general result. Takes good interest in out of school activities. D (as V. H.T.)

Roll No.	Classification.	Authority.	Remarks.
793.		30 9 03 H. Eddy:	Is very keen with zeal and industry at this school; from this cause I am not able to judge of his efficiency. (N.E. with [illegible])
		18 7 04 H. Burgess:	Has fairly good teaching ability but lacks application and steady industry. He has not done as good work as he is capable of. His management is only fair. Discipline & tone good to very good. C. Fair
		5 8 04	Informed that unless he shows at future inspections that he is discharging his duties with zeal and efficiency steps will be taken with a view to his reduction to a lower class or even to dispensing with his services.
		- - 05 7063	Fined ten shillings (10/-) for neglecting to forward programme of work as directed by S. Inspector and by the Department.
		. . 05 8294	Suspended from duty and case reported to P.S. Comr. under §123 Act 1135 and §13 Act 1779. - charged as under. (1) Being negligent or careless in the discharge of his duties. (2) Inefficiency or incompetency, such inefficiency or incompetency appearing to arise from causes within his own control. Admitted in writing the truth of Charge 1; re Charge 2. he admits that "it is true in a great measure but not altogether."
6.3.7A	28 8 05	9649.	P.S.C's cert for the reduction of John Apted Fairhall to the VI class & Sub. dim. Fixed salary £110 per year.
		18 7 05 H. Burgess:	Was grossly neglected his duty. His school has passed a wretched examination. As he has good teaching powers there is no excuse for his failure. The management has been extremely inefficient. Discipline & Tone does not say good, as far as behaviour is concerned. 4.5. Inefficient.
2498	. .	05 12742	Transferred 13 November 1905.
	. .	05 12742	Appointed H.T. from 14 November 1905 - Div II
	24 11	05 H. Henderson:	Seems earnest and vigorous. N.E. 62 fair (prot)
	3 4	06 H. "	Could with an exercise of judgment improve the appearance of his school. His organization is on the right & north. Pro. N. Tables are omitted. His teaching is vigorous and accurate in some subjects; unprepared and inexcusable in others. 60 fair
	27 6	06 7464	Fined 10/- for his failure to reply to Dep. Sec's letter of 19.4.06, and cautioned against future negligence in regard to official correspondence.
6.3.2	30 6	06 In Rill
	11 12	06 H. Henderson:	Has given more attention to his own scholarship. His organization is further, but his methods of instruction are not concrete enough. C. Fair
	17 4	07 H. " "	For a time showed a slight improvement in the management of the school. That improvement has not been sustained. His organization is shiftless & haphazard. He has no conception of the relative importance of subjects. His methods of teaching are fragmentary and unprepared. C. Fair.
	4 12	07 H. " "	Has not a grasp of the programme. The instruction is dull & aimless. Mind & superintendence and energy are responsible for the low level of the school. C.D. N.S.
	9 4	08 H. " "	A slight improvement on his last year's work. The weakness lies in his inability to keep at his duties continuously unprompted. There is also a loss of time as a result. Takes the place of quick & correct work. Does work of a fair character only. He is not determined enough; he talks too much, teaches too little. His organization & supplies are poor. The children have grown dull. C. Fair
