3 October 1842

Dear Sir
I do myself the honor to inform you that the Hon. Mr. Lauder calls upon me for a return of all letters which under the Regulation of 21 January 1841 between the 1 March and 19 September 1842, the latter date being as you have been already informed, the period at which the uniform price system ceased.
They have's object in calling for the return was to furnish the Colonial Secretary with Descriptions of the late for Deeds but to what time was allowed for the preparation of the return that the party engaged in preparing it it was considered to act up for the greater part of the people so that it is not to nearly done as it might have been but greater time has been allowed, however notwithstanding the extreme hurry, & conferment the Descriptions of each set forth with the printer's ornaments
