V.2.53		24	6	21	In. Roll
		1	9	21	H Stone As stated by the examiner he said today, the relative standards of the HT are too low. He has not shown sufficient interest in the pupils' progress, nor in his efforts to obtain furniture, records & other requisites from the Department.
		7	11	22	H " His work at this school is good in some respects, but his teaching does not always remove the difficulties of the individual. He should work harder, more definitely & show more interest in covering the program in essential subjects. He seems to lack interest in the pupils & in his work generally.
		7	11	23	H " As regards the number of pupils on the roll, this is low, but there is teaching and necessary organization is valid for [illegible] The standard attained by the pupils is satisfactory. The standard of work & the methods do not encourage the best in pupils. The plan submitted is unsatisfactory, the work must be done not merely planned for the Inspector. If doing these things he has a splendid opportunity & could with advantage to himself & to the pupils give his whole hearted attention & he will be very much to blame if he does not.
