	Geary	11. 3. 73/9377 H.	Reports that Mr Quinlan's provincial accent (brogue) militates against his success as a teacher. He may no doubt get on pretty well in a small school of his own countrymen, but he is out of place in so large & important a school as that of Chillem (327) where a smart active and thoroughly efficient assistant is wanted.
	Craig	15. 8. 73/24409 H.	"Mr Quinlan does not appear to get on very well with Mr Marshall (327). Mr Marshall complains of his inaptitude & desires of getting away from this position & would be glad to get a School of his own provided the remuneration obtained from the new situation were not less or at least not much less than his present income. I think it would be advantageous to this School (327) to remove Mr Quinlan to another sphere" –
	Tyman	2 2 75 4740 H.	an average country teacher – with perhaps below the average refinement.
	"	6 9 75 2891 042.	A very fair teacher for a small school – rather rough and wanting refinement.
		76/1083	Batty, for Lands states that Mr Quinlan was guilty of making false declaration.

M.O. 3281.		8. 2. 76/407 –	After a careful perusal of these papers I have come to the conclusion that it is not right to continue Mr Quinlan's connection with this Department. I think his conduct disreditable and consider his services as teacher should be dispensed with.
