		26 2 10 H Dorley	He is earnest, hard working & stimulating teacher, does good work in many directions, but his teaching of classes I needs strengthening. He questions freely & supervises the school closely. He keeps the Outrooms in good order. 80. Good. (Prof.)
		14 11 10 H. "	He has done good useful work in many directions but patterns of teaching have been disappointing in their results, especially his spelling, Arithmetic & Grammar in the upper classes. Improved in no doubt has reduced the efficiency of his teaching. 78. Good. A good teacher, earnest & enthusiastic. He questions rapidly with good skill, but allows too much pupils eagerness to answering. He is also inclined to rush, but he should more carefully instruct. He does not actually teach. He should work the school more in his pupils games. 75. Good.
		1 3 11 H. " Evans
		15 11 11 H. "	A good teacher on the whole. He has worked earnestly with satisfactory degree of success during the year. But his teaching of classes I to III should be improved. The school shows steady progress, fair standard of work, & good discipline. Oral work should be more efficient. Subjects of the programme are taught. 75. Good.

		11 13 H —	The organization as seen this morning [illegible] to be desired. The work being all the page, but his time was not spent to advantage. Moreover, could be improved by more hearing. The work done in school lacked [illegible] the conscientiousness of the teacher. [illegible] For the present he may be reckoned a good teacher. 71. (Prof.) Though many aspects are satisfactory, the children show interest in their lessons, and [illegible] improvement is evident, and he has worked faithfully, the upper classes he teaches well, but the teaching in the lower classes is not efficient. A good teacher. 72.
