PLAN shewing the features of the Country between Mount Macedon, Mount Blackwood, and the Plains at the Tributaries of the Werribee Surveyed and Drawn by Robert Hoddle
Chains 10 5 0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 2 3 4 Miles Scale of Two Inches to a Mile Magnetic North Variation 8° East nearly 3430 feet above the level of the Sea
Syenite Rock
Mount Macedon
very large Trees principally black butted Eucalypti Stringy bark Ranges
Road from the Carrhastai Scrubby land heavily timbered scrubby Range thickly timbered Open forest
Stringy bark thickly timbered
Stringy bark, box
Good pasture
Mount Macedon Road
Indow Stonyforth's Cattle Station
Stringy bark lightly timbered Stringy bark thinly timbered
open forest
large Timber
Box. Gum
Eucalypti moderately timbered Good pasture
thickly timbered
Good Pasture
Bullancrook
Goodman's Hut
Goodman's Well
Open forest
Good pasture
Poor scrubby country deep gullies
deep scrubby rocky gullies
Barren scrubby Ranges destitute of pasture and thickly timbered
Open Plain
Mount Blackwood
2500 feet above the level of the Sea
Mernong
Werribee
Lerderderg
One Tree Hill Range
Mackenzie's New Hut Sheep Station
Open forest
Good pasture
Open Plain
Korkuperrimul
Lerderderg Hill
Werribee River
called Lerderderg by Mr Parker
Sheep Station
Loddon 66
8573
Loddon etc. 64
accompanying my Letter No 43/1602 dated 22 December 1842
Robert Hoddle
Surveyor