General Remarks

At Henry & Mathew Gaffery was trial at General Sessions on 17/7/76 and both discharged the Crown Prosecutor withdrawing the case on account of the girls' evidence being so conflicting. In the course of the trial the girl (in answer to Mr Gaffery) stated that she had been in prison both Mr & Mrs Gaffery because of her own which she placed in their hands. They also escaped with her from through having stolen the goods of the prison (sent for 1/1/76 3/1/76)

| Previous History. Father unknown mother Annie McCarthy, poor, living with a Chinese barber, in a house at the back of the Theatre Royal. This girl was adopted by a man named Wm Lee, when she was 18 years of age. Lee and his wife brought her up respectably, but by some means she found out her mother who is not of good character. |                               |                                 |                                |       |                     |            |              |                               |                    |                  |                           |

| Mr. Neal was informed by Mr. Morgan, City missionary that this girl is exceedingly depraved and has for a long time been living and acting in a most loose and indisputable manner. Let this be borne in mind when seeking to send her to service. | Previous History. Father. William Dunstan, a labourer, from Little Oxford Street, Collingwood. Mother dead. Sister Mrs Rice, was in the habit of taking this girl round the chambers houses for immoral purposes, and it is said that she has been tampered with. The father was in court under a sentence of 14 days. |                                 |                                                |                                         |       |                     |            |              |                               |                    |                  |                           |  |
