HANGING OF MURDERER

Protest Made to Governor

At a meeting in the Trades Hall council chamber last night it was decided that a last effort should be made to have the death sentence passed on W. T. Johnson suspended. A resolution moved by Senator Cameron, deploring the hanging of Johnson, was carried.

Both the Governor, Lord Huntingfield, and the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, were roused from their beds by telephone calls. His Excellency advised that the matter was beyond his jurisdiction, and Mr. Dunstan informed Mr. J. Cain, M.L.A., that he could not interfere with the decision of Cabinet.

No alteration has been made by State Cabinet in its decision, after a review of the evidence, that the death sentence passed on Johnson for the murder of two men at Dunolly should be carried out. A deputation on the subject waited on the Chief Secretary last week, but the Premier declined during the week end to hear further representations on the subject.

Johnson will be executed at Pentridge at 8 a.m. to-day.

Johnson Executed

Thomas William Johnson, 40 years, laborer, who was found guilty of the murder of two pensioners at Dunolly last year, was executed at Pentridge prison at 8 a.m. yesterday.

The sheriff (Mr. H. C. Keeley) has abolished the custom of questioning the condemned man on the scaffold. Johnson, when given the opportunity in the cell, had nothing to say. Death was instantaneous.
