		26	7	12	H. Sexton	Is a very good teacher. He is not forcible nor aggressive in manner but has nevertheless strong powers of control. Being of high ideals he is strong in cultured personality and a well read man. He devotes himself in a most whole hearted way to his school and is an excellent instructor. 96
		11	7	13	H. "	A very good teacher. His school is managed on sound educational principles & receives his whole hearted attention. 96.
		28	11	13	H. Hurley	He attends to the duties of his important office in a painstaking, conscientious & efficient manner. He exerts a good influence over his S.Ts & gains the cooperation of his staff. The increased demands upon his powers of organization during the remodelling of his school have been satisfactorily met. In dealing with D. class he shows very good controlling & teaching skill. A V.G. teacher, 96.

2103		.	.	14	6609	Appt'd H.T. from 16 April 1914.
		6	5	14	H. Hurley.	Has not yet had time to get a good grip of the new form of organization introduced by his predecessor. He takes a keen interest in all that pertains to the welfare of his school. In his close attention to duty and courteous bearing towards his staff & pupils, he affords a good example to his young teachers. A V.G. teacher & disciplin. 96
		27	10	14	H. "	He has met the difficulties caused by changes in staff and other causes and utilised in a satisfactory manner the teaching power at his disposal. He has made himself acquainted with the weak spots, and is taking effective means to cope with them. He is alive to the necessity of strengthening the sense of corporate responsibility amongst the teachers of the various depts. His kindly disposition and devotion to duty gain the cheerful cooperation of his staff. A very good teacher & organizer. 96
		17	3	15	H. "	He is a very good H.T. He gains the respect and co-operation of his staff by his earnestness, devotion to duty, and gentlemanly bearing. His kindly manner combined with firmness secures and maintains a good school tone without harshness. He shows good judgment in the use he makes of his staff, and a progressive attitude in respect to the organization of his school generally. 97
	I. 1. 41	28	6	15	Tr. Roll
		20	8	15	H. Hurley	He is an earnest conscientious Head Master and an excellent class teacher. He exerts a nice influence upon the members of his staff. His organization is, in the main, very good. Transfers and removals of staff have increased his difficulties of management. He gives constant & effective attention to the training of his J.Ts in the art of teaching. He needs to place still larger responsibilities upon the teachers in charge of depts. A very good teacher. 97
		9	3	16	H. "	A conscientious & painstaking Headmaster. His organization shows thought & close attention to the duties of his important post and is in most respects very good. His government of his school is marked by a kindly consideration towards his staff and by firmness in dealing with his pupils. With an almost entire absence of corporal punishment the discipline & tone of his school are very good. A very good teacher. 97

Roll No.	Classification.	Authority.	Remarks.
1228		19 9 08 H. Davey	His work has only attained the fair standard as shown by the examn. (Spelling, Comprehension, Science, Drawing, Brushwork & drill are in an unsatisfactory condition.) The school is fairly difficult to work, but a much greater degree of thoroughness should be aimed at in the above mentioned subjects. A fair teacher & manager. 67. Fair.
		23 2 09 H. "	Is able to do good work but he is not giving the requirements of the school (equipment & organization) that thoughtful consideration which is necessary. Teaching fair to good. Management unsatisfactory. 62. Fair.

		17 8 09 H. Davey	Shows a marked improvement generally at this visit. The school has passed a distinctly good examn., and affords evidence of good teaching of a sustained character having been given. A good teacher & manager. 81. Good
		30 [illegible] 10 H.	[illegible] 81
		14 9 10 H. "	Has improved: is an earnest intelligent and painstaking teacher, and has done very good work generally since last visit. The examination a very good one: and shows the school has made very good progress. 86 V.G.
		3 6 11 H. [illegible]	A good teacher. Has a pleasant encouraging manner, possesses a good teaching voice and holds the attention of his class. Has on the whole very good methods - though in arithmetic the treatment & the sequence of the lesson could be improved. At times lacks definiteness in his teaching. 81. Good
		14 8 11 H. -	A good teacher on the whole. He has a good teaching style, but there is a want of thoroughness in a good deal of his work. A more logical treatment of arithmetic is an urgent necessity. His methods of teaching some subjects are not sufficiently modern. Has a pleasant manner & a good [illegible]
		14 5 12 H	A good teacher. His work would be more successful were his lessons better developed. He is painstaking & his work shows some improvement. 78

		31 11 12 H. Armitage	He keeps his school very nice. He organizes fairly well & is a successful teacher. His work would be more profitable if it were driven home more conclusively. He keeps good discipline. He is a good teacher. 76 (Good.)
		6 7 13 H. [illegible]	A good teacher. His school has [illegible], the work in some grades being of a high standard, in others inferior. He does not always employ good methods or show sufficient determination & resource in dealing with matters affecting his school. 77
		15 9 13 H. -	A good teacher on the whole. He uses good methods & teaches with a certain degree of skill but his work is marred by imperfect organization. He neglects the lower grades of the school, and since the exam. has neglected his grounds & some matters of organization 71
		30 4 14 H. - -	A good teacher, he is now putting forth more effort to increase the efficiency of his school and has made marked improvement in the past six months. Is still somewhat weak in matters of organization. 76
		30 7 14 H.	A good teacher. His school has passed on the whole a good exam. but many grave weaknesses were revealed. His teaching lacks definiteness and driving power, but he is working to the best of his ability. 75
	V. 2. 149	13 6 15 H. 23 6 15 In Roll	A good teacher. He is not a consistently good worker, but at present he is working to the best of his ability. The management of the junior dept. is very poor, and his instruction generally fails to reach the average pupils. 77
		23 7 15 H. Alleyne	A good teacher. Under his care bright & willing pupils make very satisfactory progress but he is unable to rouse the majority to responsiveness. Though a good disciplinarian he fails to create a very satisfactory working tone in his school. He is still working conscientiously. 75
		17 4 16 H. Rae	Today his lessons to the upper grades were well given. He should supervise more effectively the lower schoolroom. 75
1905		16. 8101	Transferred 30 September 1916. Appd. H.T. from 1 October 1916.
		5 7 16 H. Stuart	Adopts good methods but fails at times to drive his work right home. His questions generally are well framed but are not distributed widely enough; and willing pupils do most of the work. Is on good terms with parents & pupils.
		6 3 17 H. Leach	Seen for the first time: a good teacher; a good organizer; takes interest in his school & pupils; maintains good discipline. 82
		9 11 17 H. "	A good teacher: is working earnestly & with good success; is doing very good work in connection with the Patriotic F. 81
		11 3 18 H. "	A good teacher: his activities as regards the Patriotic F. have produced very good results; keeps good order. 81

	V.1.101	27 6 24 In. Roll	Takes v. g. interest in his school, attends early & makes good preparation. Though more use of trained monitors is necessary in lower school he is managing well. The work savors much of testing & revision but good headway has been made in most subjects. 84.
		16 3 25 Gray
		19 10 25 "	Though his work should be planned in better detail he makes good b.b. preparation & works diligently. More up-to-date methods of teaching junior dept. pupils are necessary. Weakness was shown in English but the pupils in other depts have made fair progress. 83
		28 4 26 "	Gives much thought & attention to his duties & manages well. His pupils put forth good effort & an improvement in English is shown. Mathematics, however, still requires special attention 83
		11 2 27 "	Is earnest & diligent & gives his pupils of his best. Some weakness is apparent in English & arithmetic in the lower school but his senior pupils are better advanced relatively. He has rendered the Department loyal service. IX (SHT)
