DEATH OF MR. G. L. ALLAN.

A prominent figure in musical and business circles, Melbourne passed away yesterday in the person of Mr. George Leavis Allan, manager of the firm of Allan and Co. Limited, music sellers. Mr. Allan was in his 71st year at the time of his death, which took place at his residence, "Cherrick," Lansdowne-road, East St. Kilda, after an illness extending over several months. The deceased gentleman was stricken with paralysis stroke in December last, but never recovered. Since then he was in regular attendance at his business, the immediate cause of death was pneumonia.

Mr. Allan was born in Middlesex, England, and after receiving a musical training in London, entered the Imperial Civil Service. Attracted by the gold rush of the early fifties, he came to Victoria in 1853. After a short stay he returned to Melbourne, and was appointed by the Board of Education to the charge of the singing classes in connection with the denominational system then in force. In addition to conducting the classes which were held in the old Model School, William-street, he was also engaged in addition to his public duties as organist at St. Paul's Cathedral. These were such well-known musicians as Messrs. Deacons and Mr. Arthur Hammond and others. More than 30 years ago the music dealing business was started by Mr. Allan, which then consisted of Messrs. Webster and Allan, Mr. Webster and Mr. Allan, and on the death of his partners, Mr. Allan carried on the business on his own account. Until some 15 years later he was joined by his son, Mr. Geo. Allan, the present gentleman connected with the firm. In addition to Australian musicians who visited Melbourne in early days, and in several of whom the public owe their enjoyment of the most brilliant concerts we have visited Melbourne in the interests of the firm with which he was connected. Mr. Allan has published many works and pamphlets, and on several occasions he has been in the interests of the profession. Some years ago his business was floated into a limited liability company, which he and his family managed. Deceased leaves behind him a family of six sons and two daughters. The funeral will leave his late residence at an hour announced elsewhere.
