DUNOLLY, SUNDAY.

Yesterday the second daughter of Mr. John Desmond, J.P., died after a short illness, and under unusually sad circumstances. The deceased young lady was in the Education department, being stationed at Warragul until within a few weeks ago. She resigned the position to come home, in view of her marriage with Mr. Rose, who is in the Telegraph department. The marriage was to take place last Wednesday, the necessary arrangements having been made, but 10 days prior to that date the young lady was seized with an illness, which proved fatal. When she left Warragul she was presented with many wedding gifts. She was always prominent in assisting at charitable concerts. Only 12 months ago Mr. Desmond lost a son, who was assistant clerk of courts at Maryborough.

Died 2 December 1894
