Roll No.	Qualification.	Classification.	Authority.
17113			16 4 13	H. Thomas. A very good infant mistress using up to date methods. She is working under disadvantages as regards rooms. Her work is thoroughly prepared. She has a quiet & dignified manner that appeals to children. Her control is very good. She gives much attention to the training of her voice & speech. I am glad to see that her work is progressing. 94
			12 8 13	8 — — Here ends the successful 6½ years of Miss Fowler's connection with Greenvale. During that time she has worked under very unfavorable conditions as regards buildings & staff. Her methods are up to date & her work is thorough. She has a good influence over the children & is keenly interested in the welfare of the district. She has also been a good musician & has given valuable help in the general work of the school. I am sorry to see her leave. The district loses in her departure a very capable teacher & a good citizen. 94

MAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Amongst the crowd waiting outside the Melbourne Cricket Ground yesterday morning was Alfred Mitchell, 59 years, of 188 North-road, Brighton. About 10.15 a.m. he suddenly collapsed. An ambulance from one of the special first-aid stations hurried him to the Melbourne Hospital, but on arrival there life was pronounced extinct. Death is believed to have been due to disease of the heart.

BIRTHS.—On the 26th April (suddenly), Alfred Mitchell, of Yarra, 188 North-road, Brighton, aged 59, the dearly beloved husband of the late Jane and Emma Mitchell, and father of Gertrude, Wentworth, Edward, Emily (Mrs. Mitchell, Strathford, Stan (New Zealand).
