			10 5 07 H Harold	Poor teacher of Army (but not professional) from brogue. He shows no capacity whatever, and leaves the major part of the work to his wife. Neither of them has much knowledge of the requirements of our programme. He and L.D. & his wife is a 3.Sc. but are quite unaccustomed to the kind of work they are called upon to perform here. N.T. promoted.
1648			07 10420	Temp H. T. 1 Sept. 07.
			10 4 08 H Dew	A fair teacher who receives able assistance from his wife. He is gentlemanly & well informed, and maintains good discipline. 63. Fair.
			28 7 08 H "	A fair teacher who receives good assistance from his wife. They both take a deep interest in their pupils. Much of their work cannot be estimated by class percentages. The children under their care are very well behaved & like their work. A love of reading is being cultivated among the pupils by means of work done on Saturday mornings. 67. Fair.
			19 2 09 H Hartley	Much of the work of this school is done by Mr^s Daly who is unsuccessful in securing attendances & good teaching ability. Mr Daly is a fair teacher, only one teaches some subjects successfully. She has very little knowledge of approved methods of teaching young children. Both Head & wife have a very pleasing influence. The tone of the school is very good, & discipline is fair. 64. Fair.
			25 6 09 H "	Mr & Mr^s Daly merit a very fine influence over the pupils of the school. The organisation, attendance & class instruction on the whole is good. 73. Good.
			15 2 10 H "	The school is unsuccessfully managed. Mr Daly does good work in the Sen. Geography & Reading while Mr^s Daly does the greater part of the teaching. She is endeavouring to apply the methods of teaching to the young children, & possesses a teaching style & much above the average. Her pupils have a very good tone. 71. Good.

			14 6 11 H Lacy	Mr Daly LL.D. and Mr^s Daly B.A. Cantab. are conducting the work. Mr Daly is a splendid scholar and gives his pupils a fine appreciation of literature and history. Mr^s Daly is hard working, has modern ideas of teaching and is fully conversant with her methods of teaching. They are having a fine influence on their pupils and are securing the good will & co-operation of parents. 76.
