1174			24 10 13 H. Thomas	A fair teacher. His residence of miles from his work interferes seriously with its efficiency. The work is not uniform. In some subjects e.g. Geography methods are faulty. He does too much for pupils in oral work. Not enough effort on part of pupil. He takes good care of school property and seems to control the pupils well. He should not allow teachers of pupils to overrule his wisdom. Needs to be more careful with entries in r. sheets. More energy & better methods are needed. 68

			3 3 14 H. Lowry	A fair teacher. His teaching methods are generally good and he applies himself industriously but a more effective handling of the program waits for a more clearly conceived objective and more definite planning to attain it. He keeps his school fairly going and his discipline may be classed as very good. 67
			1 7 14 H. "	A fair teacher, industrious & methodical but securing only moderate results. His organization has improved somewhat but the pupils' retardation is a blot. His discipline may be classed as very good. 68
			15 2 15 H.	A fair teacher. He applies himself industriously but is inclined to do too much himself. His teaching makes too little appeal to the intelligence of his pupils. He keeps his school fairly going but the details of organization are not yet complete. His discipline is very good. 69

			7 10 15 H. Lowry	A fair teacher. He works hard but does not exact enough thought from his pupils. He has apparently left his lower school too much to monitors. The instruction of the school was broken by his absence on leave. His organization is more detailed and his discipline is very good. 69
			6 3 16 H.	A fair teacher. His teaching should be more systematic and definite and should exact more effort from his pupils. The organization shows this defect while satisfying mechanical requirements. The lower school is the chief centre of weakness. His discipline is very good. 69

			1 10 18 H. Harley	A fair teacher. Has been in charge only a fortnight. Has so far made the necessary preparation of work. Can give a fair lesson of the lecture type, but does not get into close mental touch with his pupils & clinch the matter presented. 69
			14 2 18 H. Akeroyd	A fair teacher. So far as the senior pupils are concerned he manages & teaches fairly well, but the junior dept. is practically neglected. Does not secure the cooperation of parents. 70
			21 2 18 H.	A fair teacher on the whole. Much of his work is quite unsatisfactory including his instruction of the junior dept. though in the senior grades he teaches some subjects with good success. He is tactless and by his actions & attitude antagonizes parents & school committee ([illegible])
			20 5 19 H. Harley	A fair teacher. His management shows some incompleteness in details. His methods can be much improved especially in the thought compelling subjects. He keeps his classes fairly well occupied, but gives very little teaching of the educative type. 67
			1 10 19 H. "	A fair teacher. His management is faulty since there is nothing to show that Science or Nature Study has been taught. His school has made satisfactory progress in some directions but shows much weakness in others. 67
			11 5 20 H. Lowry	A fair teacher, teaching some subjects with good effect, others ineffectively. His effectiveness today was marred by lack of preparation consequent on unpunctuality. He keeps his school fairly going. His discipline is very good. 69

His methods require more class teaching & less [illegible] work. His manner is sympathetic & quiet. He has a wholesome influence on his pupils. Supervision requires attention. A good teacher. 81 (Prov.)
			12	9	13	.	He is very eager, industrious & sympathetic. He has improved much in his grasp of his work but is, at times, too discursive. His class lessons are stronger but do not require so much elaboration. His management is good and he is doing good steady work. Discipline & tone are very good. A good teacher. 83.
			28	1	14	H. .	He has a bright pleasant manner & is conscientious & zealous. The organization is on good lines but his clerical work should be kept up to date. His methods of instruction have improved and greater use of the B.B. is made. Fuller self-activity of the pupils should be encouraged. Discipline & tone are very good. A good teacher. 83
			15	9	14	H. .	He possesses a vigorous, earnest manner and has done much to improve the equipment of the school. His management and preparation are good. In his teaching he requires firmer clinching so as to ensure more accurate working and freer response. He has endeavoured to give good teaching and training to his J.T. Discipline and tone are very good. A good teacher. 82
			17	3	15	H. .	He has a forceful earnest sympathetic manner. Very good care of Govt. property is shown. The pupils' attitude to work has improved [illegible]. The management is good and full preparation for work is made. The seniors require greater attention from the teacher. He is rendering good service. A good tchr. 83
