2313			5 2 11 H. Lawrence	A very good teacher. A good motor-less teacher having great influence with the school. Interest pursues literal to blend in school work & shows skill in class teaching. He is rather over anxious, does not manage his work sufficiently, but he is progressive & getting some influence by his enthusiasm. 88.
			9 11 11 11 "	A good teacher. Teaches with spirit and care, worries for prompt & methodical work by his pupils, needs quietness, determination, takes very great interest in his school & its welfare. Manages, Yagoba. 88
			22 5 12 H Armitage	He takes pride in the appearance of his school. His manners his work and progressive attitude in all parts of his pupils would be admirable. Very good teaching in every part, but hope might be improved to it.
		V. 1. 338	28 6 12 Jr. Asst	He is a very good teacher. 86.
			15 5 13 H Henderson	A good teacher, but a keen observer will not fail to detect his lack of method & discipline. His manners are not pleasing, his interest in pupils is confined to the class-room, & he is not a good disciplinarian. He is a good teacher. His interest in agriculture is a pleasing feature; but subjects demanding close attention are often neglected. 84.

It appears from D.I.'s inquiry that he (H.J.) has been under the influence of liquor during school hours on more than one occasion; that the school has been carried on for some time past in a lax & irregular manner; that the entries made by him on the time sheets & Rolls are not reliable. There is reason to believe that some of his absences are due to over-indulgence in alcohol. Owing to these irregularities, it is considered that he is not a fit & proper person to remain in the Service. to 31st Dec. 1894."
