In consequence of certain Charges, brought by William Standring (an Immigrant) against the Officers of this Ship, His Honor gave instructions to the Board of Immigration to form themselves into a Board of Inquiry to investigate the same.

The Board accordingly assembled on board on the 14th August, and after a searching enquiry, during which the witnesses brought forward by the above named Immigrant to prove his case, entirely contradicted him, came to the unanimous conclusion that the Charges had not been proved, and that the Officers of the Vessel were completely exonerated from any imputation against their Character as Gentlemen filling a Responsible Situation

The Charge was that of undue familiarity between the Officers and Captain of the Single females.

Aug 14. 1848

Sir

I beg leave to inform your Honor that in consequence of your directions a full Board, consisting of Dr Cussen, Colonial Surgeon Captain Pumbury Harbour Master Mr Gunn Clerk of Works, and myself assembled to day onboard the "Cornwall" to investigate the charge made by William Standring, one of the Immigrants, Charging the Mates of the Vessel with having maintained an undue familiarity unseemly and unbecoming with certain of the female Immigrants during the latter part of the Voyage

The Board entered into a minute and searching enquiry of all the Charges preferred during which it transpired that the Mates of the Vessel had indulged in terms of familiarity rather incompatable with the dignity of their situations as Officers of the Ship which might have led to a laxity of that discipline and respect at all times so necessary to be maintained in the circumstances under consideration, and the relative position of the parties

Nothing

Report of the Board ("Cornwall")

Melbourne Aug 12. 1818

Nothing Criminal, was attempted to be adduced by William Standing against either of the parties implicated in the Charge, nor was any thing absolutely indecent proven against the Males of the Vessel

It appeared evident that some of the female Immigrants were permitted to enter the Caddy and occasionally to sit on the door of the Chief Officers Cabin which opens immediately out on the Deck and under the Poop, by the way the most exposed and public part of the Ship

William Standing however produced three or four Male Immigrants to substantiate some of his Charges: and to our Surprise their testimony went directly to disprove the assertions of the Complainant.

The Board after due deliberation came to the conclusion that the Officers of the Ship were completely exonerated from any imputation against their Characters as Gentlemen filling responsible situations

That the Charges brought against them were not proven but were frivolous, vexatious and unfounded

I have the honor to be for & on behalf of the Board assembled
