5 5		79/15547 H.	Summons - This teacher is not in any way fitted to have charge of a school, and should be removed.
12 4		79/15547 H.	Prodrick - Does not appear to possess much intelligence or skill, but is nevertheless doing fairly.
		79/15547 H.	Resigned 14 June 1882.
1671	State	79/15547 H.	Transf. to J. from 1 August 1883.
21 11		79/15547 H.	Edy - Timid, but not skilful. certainly wanting in firmness.
21 3		79/15547 H.	Edy - Has not improved. He is the same dull, unmethodical, flustering teacher as ever. utterly wanting in the power to manage a class of children. It appears to me that a village would be almost as well without a teacher as with him.
		79/15547 H.	The attention of H. S. having been directed to D. S. report - he was informed that the report is of such an unfavorable character as to render it doubtful whether he should be entrusted with the charge of a school. Reminded that in Section 83 of the Public Service Act of 1873 it is provided that if an officer is incapable of discharging his duties, his services may be dispensed with. Further informed that unless in the position, he should be transferred to a less responsible position and efficiency at any time necessary to having his case under the notice of the Public Service Board.

722	Shelton	86 2461	Appointed to J. from 23 January 1886.
		12 10 87/34007 H.	One of the weakest teachers I am acquainted with. His report to the unfavorable character of D. S. report: informed that is most the reverse of predictable that the school should be in so backward a state considering the staff & the attendance. It further info that unless strenuous effort be made to improve matters, it may be necessary to report him to the Public Service Board in accord with Sect. 83 of P. S. Act.

1935	Shelton	86 18443 H.	Holland - Thoroughly kind and gentle with children. His teaching was of an intelligent character, as seen today but it was wholly ineffective on account of the teacher's extraordinary neglect of discipline. Mr. Brown is also deficient in his management of school.
		4 10 86/38813 H.	Shelton - An elderly man and teacher of the old school. Diligent and conscientious, but not a very capable teacher.
		86 18997 H.	Heptimus - Very moderate; doing his best.
