		22 6 05 H.	Cavanagh :- Fair in organization, teaching & tone. Works with much energy and industry, but methods are old, mechanical, and have wrong ideals. Does not rouse scholars nor generate power. A fair teacher. 63.
		1 12 05 05	/12971 Cautioned for her action in erasing and obliterating entries made in the Inspector by D.I.
		4 12 05 H	Bellamy :- Was a strong influence for good over the scholars. She works diligently and has fair ability as a class teacher. She takes a deal to beautify the school surroundings. 69. fair.
		21 3 06 H.	" :- Is very mechanical in her teaching. Her aim is better to fill the memory than to give clear understanding of principles and Educational powers. She keeps very good discipline, but she is only a fairly good teacher. — 66. fair.
	7.3.10	30 6 06 Fr. Roll.
		26 2 07 H.	Bellamy :- She keeps her school room in very good order. She makes effort to interest her scholars in their work. In her teaching she is only fairly successful in obtaining really educative results from the scholars. She is a fair teacher. 66. Fair.
		9 3 08 H.	" :- She pays a very good attention to her school room and grounds. She has fairly good ability to organize the work of a small school; her methods of teaching are mechanical, but she is improving in this respect. She is a fairly good teacher. 67. Fair.
		12 2 08 H	" :- She works hard but does not secure the attention with appears possible & hence there is some lack of accuracy in work & of weakness in matters of effort on the part of the scholars. The standard of attainments of the scholars is fairly good. 67. Fair
		27 4 09 H.	Bellamy :- She keeps her school room tidy & clean. She has improved in method & organization of school work. She has good ideas but her teaching has gained only fairly good results. 69. Fair.

HE ARGUS, THURS

THE SCHOOLS.

By PRELECTOR.

A schoolmaster has many happy recollections of his career as a teacher, and some that are the opposite When he retires and looks back, when he thinks of the lads who have passed through his hands, he has much to recall, and when his old boys of all generations gather round and show him honour and respect and affection, it must be a proud moment. Major Sam Barclay, who joined the Albert Park State school in 1887, and was for more than 30 years connected with the staff there, had such an experience on Saturday evening, when more than 200 of his old boys entertained him at a smoke concert at Anzac House. Major Barclay was noted for his enthusiasm as a teacher. He was keenly interested in everything his boys did, and the outstanding note on Saturday was enthusiasm They were keen to show him that they had learned their lesson well, and they succeeded. Mr Frank Beaurepaire presided, and he and Captain Harold Peters, M.C., Mr Chris Gambetta, of the Education department, and Mr. Frank G. Richardson made it perfectly clear to Major Barclay that his old boys were enthusiastic in their feelings towards him. They presented him with diamond studded sleeve links and gold dress studs, and a gold wristlet watch for his sister. Everything was spontaneous, and Mr. J. W Wilton and Mr. Hosking, who organised the gathering, must have felt that it was an easy task to work these fellows up. The outcome of the evening was that they formed an old boys' association and appointed Major Barclay permanent chairman. The wish of all old Albert Parkians is that Major Barclay may long be spared to "call the roll" at the annual reunion.

girls as "Major" Barclay because of his long connection with the cadet corps movement. He will be retiring from the head teachership of the State school, Caulfield, on Friday, when the school breaks up for the year. Mr. Barclay has been a force for much good in school life for many years, and his triumphs have been as numerous in school as out. He has been a teacher and an organiser, a sportsman, and a friend of his pupils. He was one of the promoters of the State Schools' Athletic Association. He began as a pupil teacher at Gold street, Clifton Hill, in November, 1881, and thus his connection with the Education department has been over 45 years. After a while in the Training College under the late Mr. F. J. Gladman, Mr. Barclay was on the relieving staff until he became an assistant teacher at Albert Park. With two short breaks to gain promotion he remained at Albert Park for nearly 30 years. While at this school he founded the school cadet corps, and soon made it one of the foremost in drill, discipline, and general efficiency. He afterwards took over the senior cadets under the old organisation, and for several years, up to their disbandment, was commanding officer. At the Albert Park school he first organised the swimming classes, and in the interests of school swimming became honorary secretary of the Victorian Amateur Swimming Association. After leaving Albert Park school Mr. Barclay was promoted to head teacher of the Toorak Central School, and in due time was again promoted to the 1st class at Central Williamstown. After three years he transferred to Caulfield, from which school he is now retiring, with the good wishes of the parents, teachers, and scholars.

Remarks.
Is a fine [illegible] & capable teacher. He is interested & has duties and has good sound ideals as a teacher. Has a very quiet & [illegible] manner & an effective teaching style. He is a very good teacher. Gd. [illegible] good teacher & [illegible] Gd. [illegible] & a good teacher. Gd. [illegible] & a good teacher. Gd. [illegible] & a good teacher.

		13. 12. 81. 15287.	82/227. Miss Carr presented herself for examination in the 3rd class of T.h at the annual exam: and endeavoured to mislead H.M.Insp: Thuth by a misstatement, that she was employed as a Pupil Teacher in the Wedderburn School N°794, and was presented with the concurrence of the H.I. — which statement the H.I. insp. H.M. Thuth was incorrect.
