PRIVATE ROBERT MACDONALD.
Ob. 17.10.17.

MACDONALD.—Died of wounds at 10th Casualty Clearing Station, France, on the 17th October, Robert, brother of the late Lieut. Neil Macdonald, 23rd Battalion, A.I.F., who also died of wounds on the 29th July, 1918, beloved and only children of Robert and Louise Macdonald, 132 Yarra street, Geelong.

Private Robert Macdonald, Machine Gun Section, D Company, 46th Battalion, who died of wounds in France on the 17th of October, 1917, was the son of Mr. Robert Macdonald, accountant, of 132 Yarra-street, Geelong. Born in Ballarat on the 30th of June, 1895, the subject of this memoir passed through the elementary school, and then, in the years 1914-15, attended the Geelong High School, where he became senior prefect. He was successful at the Junior Public examination, and began his brief teaching career as a junior at School 1090, Sorrento, on 30th May, 1916. He resigned in order to enlist, 31st July, and met his death after a little more than a year's military service. He was the only remaining child of his parents, his brother Lieutenant Neil Macdonald, one of the original Anzacs, having been killed in France over a year ago. Robert Macdonald was a young man of amiable and upright character, a teacher in the Sunday school, and a prominent member of the Band of Hope and the Young Men's Club.
