Yesterday afternoon, while a service was being held in the Rye Church, Mr. David Brown, aged 68, a well-known Beaconsfield resident, was suddenly seized with a fit, and died very suddenly. While he was in the act of singing a hymn, in which the congregation were singing a hymn, in which he had taken part, deceased was noticed to leave the church. After service was over the children came out and noticed the body lying on the fence. Deceased was 67 years of age.

Baldwin. 15. 9. 74/26557. This is a badly regulated School: the Teacher has not sufficient dignity for his position – Takes no pride and not much pains in his work and allows rather at giving the Children employment during the School Hours than at systematic instruction. No part of the work is performed with anything like thoroughness and care. (Teachers roll for three days was not marked)

Baldwin 20. 3. 74/9018. The classes do not show marks of vigorous and careful training Teacher is not sufficiently painstaking – There is a carelessness & inaccuracy in the work of the children, I should like to see more vigor in the working of the School.

Baldwin 25 3 75 11716 Careless in teaching & management of School – not sufficiently attentive – I cannot recommend the appointment of the new School – Greater care to be taken in keeping the Rolls –

75/20185 School struck off from 30th June 1875.
