		31	3	05 H	Fissell:– Unusually large area supervision. Though there is only one small room Mr Corr is quite out of touch with the 5th & 6th classes. These are left wholly to a young monitress who is receiving no direction or supervision. Listless inattention is noticeable at all times in all classes. The pupil-teachers have acquired unprofessional habits. The teaching is unsatisfactory, owing to defective management, want of preparation, and lack of power to stimulate or even hold the attention. Much unconnected work is allowed to pass. Still unsatisfactory.
