As a class teacher she is quite inefficient & her continuance in her present class will certainly do prove detrimental to the formation by her pupils of habits of attention, order & application to duty. A fine class is going to pieces under her hands. I recommend the earliest opportunity be taken to remove her from her present position. 37 Inefficient.

	Brodribb	15 12 76/4646 H2.	This is the first examination the School has yet undergone – and for a first examination the Scholars have acquitted themselves well.
	"	23 3 77/11397 H	Gives fair satisfaction. Her power to educated and use skilful – takes pains to improve.
	Stewart	19 3 79/11145 H.	Appears to be doing fair work –
	"	3 9 79/11170 H.	Keeps her scholars fairly employed –
		. . 80/13545 H2.	Attention drawn to unfavorable nature of S.I. report, reminded that the Inspector had previously pointed out to her most of the faults now complained of, & learned that if the School be not found in a state of efficiency it may be deemed necessary to remove her to a less desirable position.
		. . 81/11139.	Attention again drawn to unfavorable nature of S.I. report, & informed that an early opportunity will be taken of removing her to a smaller School.
1109681		. . 81/160814.	Informed that it has been decided to give her one more trial, but it is expected that the next report of S.I. will be of a more favorable character
		14 4 80/13545 H.	Stewart. " Mrs Roe's teaching does not improve; she does not attend to the instructions given her. I would recommend her to a smaller school. The result of this examination is unsatisfactory."
		25 5 80/33680 H.	Stewart. A poor teacher, I do not expect her to improve much as she is getting old. She appears to be endeavouring to do better."
		10 3 81/11139 H2.	" An unsuccessful teacher. I would recommend her removal to a smaller school. –
		17 8 81/38871 H.	" – Is working harder than before, but is an inefficient teacher.
		6 3 82/10928 H2.	Stewart. Appears now to be doing her best, & in some respects shows better work. – Work in highest classes is as a rule, very poor. –
		5 7 82/26393 H.	Stewart. Does not appear equal to managing her School well. This she admits. Is not firm enough; & too easily satisfied. –
