[illegible]

I have the pleasure of the receipt of the sum of £1000 from the Government of the United Kingdom for the purchase of the land at the site of the proposed new bridge over the River Mersey at the site of the old bridge. The land is situated in the parish of St. James, in the County of Liverpool. The land is of the extent of one acre and is bounded on the north by the River Mersey, on the south by the old bridge, on the east by the land of the Government, and on the west by the land of the Corporation of Liverpool. The land is of the highest quality and is well adapted for the purpose of building a bridge. The Government have been very liberal in their offer and I am very much obliged to them for their consideration of the project. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Yours,
 J. B. Wilson
