SAFEBREAKER'S CAREER ENDED.
SHOT DEAD BY CONSTABLE
Man With International Record.
SYDNEY, Sunday.—A bullet from a policeman's revolver closed the career of William Henry Wilks, a safe breaker with an international record, at Manly yesterday. Wilks had convictions in three countries. He was shot dead by Constable Burns after putting up a desperate fight to evade arrest following a thrilling chase. The constable fired in self-defence after Wilks had discharged a revolver at him at point-blank range and missed. His death marked the finish of a man hunt that had been carried on in Manly for the past three weeks.
Wilks and a companion, the police allege, went to Manly three weeks ago on a campaign of robbery. In quick succession three Government savings bank agencies—at Red Hill, Pittwater and Faulks—were raided. Constables Fleming, Wiley, Burns and Tassell were instructed to track down the burglars. Constables Wiley and Fleming surprised the two men early yesterday morning in the act of breaking into the Warawee Cafe, at North Steyne. Hatless, and wearing sand shoes, the two burglars took to their heels. One of the fugitives turned round and presented a revolver at the head of Wiley, but the latter fired a shot over their heads as a warning to them to stop. In the darkness the two men escaped, but Tassell and Burns, attracted by the sound of the shot, were quickly on the scene. A few minutes later they found one of the men in Kolfreest. The man ran and leaped a fence. Burns chased him, grappled with him and attempted to handcuff him.
The man drew back, pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired point blank at the constable. Burns in self-defence drew his revolver and fired two shots. The first missed, and the second hit the man in the chest, passing through his heart. He dropped dead. Subsequently the dead man was identified as Wilks.
