140 - Berwick Mal-			Ad. 1 January 1861 & 31 July 1863 See Orlebar's memo- on Statistic book dated 27 July. 1863.

Respdg. —13/8/69 Received 21st. I regret the impossibility of recommending any consideration for Thomas Latham who is a man of large family. He acknowledged to me that he had entered on the Rolls, attendances, which had not been, knowingly. The only thing which I can say in his favor, is, this frank confession. But, I strongly recommend that any falsification should be visited with as severe a punishment as the Commissioners can inflict. The temptation offered by the proposed rules to falsify the rolls is great; and the means which the Inspectors have of detection are few and small. Severity is necessary also for the protection of upright teachers.

Burke 3 10 73 28154 H Is commanding in manner and impressive in his teaching — This style is well adapted to a moderate sized school.

Main 6 5 75/5367 H. Managers and teachers very well behaved when to my satisfaction than when I saw them at Drysdale - when there were three times the number of scholars.

" 27 9 75 34338 H. Can teach fairly - but his management on this occasion was decidedly weak - He is getting old, and looking out for a pension.

" 27 11 76/26324 H the school is not in a very satisfactory condition — He appears to take his work very easily.

H Informed of the unfavorable nature of the D.I's report admitted that more care and diligence must be shown in future.
