William Andrew Patrick

Roll No.	Classification	Authority	Remarks
2017		02 37045	Fined $1. for improper course adopted in disposing of the contents of the closet pans and cautioned against any such action in future.
		22 5 03 H. McEwan	:- Showed improvement in his management of school. Appears to be doing his best to improve school. C2 very fair.
	N. 2-188	11 4 02 H. McEwan	:- Taught his school, which was considerably reduced in attendance on account of weather, with satisfaction more than at former visits. Good.
		23 7 03 H. McEwan	:- Continued to maintain his school in a generally good state of efficiency - is anxious to do his best. 71.
		12 5 04 H. "	:- Managed his school with a very fair amount of success. He cannot be considered a strong teacher, but is endeavouring to keep up with requirements with a fair amount of success. C8 Fair.
		16 8 05 H. "	:- A teacher of moderate ability, doing his best in a somewhat spasmodic way. His teaching did not run so smoothly and satisfactorily as at last general inspection. There was a lack of active class teaching from the b. b. d. and his individual teaching was not as complete & thorough as formerly. C2 Fair.
1831		00 3421	Transferred 30 April 1905.
		00 3421	App'd H. J. from 1 May 1905 - Div 1
		2 11 05 H. Jackson	:- Has his school well in hand. It was in a splendid state when he took charge. Deterioration, if any, is only slight at present as far as can be judged. 80 Good.

		00 3461	App'd H. J. from 24 April 1906
	N. 2-181	29 3 06 H. Jackson	:- Management is unsatisfactory. He may be said of a good deal of the teaching. (S. unsatisfactory part).
		26 4 07 H. Rowe	:- Is showing an earnest desire to acquaint himself with good methods. He imparts instruction on sound lines but needs to be more alert to obtain the maximum of effort from his pupils and to exercise a more vigilant supervision. C9 Fair (Part).
		23 10 07 H. "	:- Displays more and more interest in his work. He has made a faithful attempt to plan his work. He shows a keen interest in the agricultural work & in the appearance of his school. He needs however to devote the work in the important subjects of the upper classes as he presents. Application goes on the whole. Pupils & tone have improved. C8 Fair.
		07 18054	Transferred 31 December 1907.
3413		07 18054	App'd H. J. from 1 January 1908.
		5 6 08 H. Rowe	:- Shows improvement in conduct & is attentive to duty; has prepared his work with care since he took charge and displays an energetic attitude and a desire to do good work, needs to organize, as he is somewhat of a haphazard worker. Under effective & constant supervision in morning meetings. 70. Fair.
	N. 3-45	11 2 08 H. "	:- Shows intelligence & better attention; good; displays fair method; but is not particular enough in regard to details. He needs to be more alert to obtain the maximum of effort from his pupils and to exercise a more vigilant supervision. C9 Fair (Part).
		20 5 09	:- Shows improvement in conduct & is attentive to duty; has prepared his work with care since he took charge and displays an energetic attitude and a desire to do good work, needs to organize, as he is somewhat of a haphazard worker. Under effective & constant supervision in morning meetings. 70. Fair.

Died 22 June 1894.

Mackenzie, Junius Joseph, at 100, Williams-road, East End, died on 22 June 1894, aged 51 years. He was the son of John Mackenzie, late secretary Public Service Board, aged 51 years.
We regret to announce the death of Mr. J. J. Mackenzie, the secretary of the Public Service Board, which took place at his residence, Williams-road, Hawthorn, yesterday. A few days ago he was stricken with paralysis, and no hope of his recovery from the attack was entertained. He was 51 years of age, and had been in the Government service since 1850. For many years he was engaged in the Postal department, and when Mr. Gomm was appointed comptroller of the savings banks about three years ago Mr. Mackenzie was selected to fill his place as secretary of the Public Service Board. The funeral will take place at 11.15 a.m.
