General Remarks

The Ship David Clark, sailed from Greenock, for Port Phillip direct, on the 15th of June 1839 - having two hundred, & twenty nine Government Emigrants on board — She put into Rio Janeiro on the 15th of August & took in water, & fresh provisions - after remaining there about ten days she resumed her voyage, and arrived at Port Phillip on the 27th of October - There occurred only one death on B^d, & one birth - During the voyage — The Emmigrants arrived at Port Phillip in excellent health, & Spirits; & appear to be a respectable body of people, & well suited to the wants of this Colony - Their general conduct during the voyage has been orderly, & obedient, & they all express themselves as highly pleased with the Arrangement, & accommodation on B^d & the treatment & attainment from the Surgeon Superintendent, the Captain, & Officers of the Ship - Their health & comforts seem to have been well attended to, the Ship appeared clean, & well ventilated, & the provisions of the best quality.

The Emmigrants were all landed in an orderly manner, on the 29th, & 30th of October, and placed in tents, ready for their reception, pitched on the opposite side of the Yarra from Melbourne In a fortnight they were all advantageously disposed of, for their services were very much required, & from the high rate of wages their condition in life must be vastly improved. — D

Gennal remarks

The ship Glen Huntly sailed from Greenock for Port Philip about on the 14th day of December 1839 about six weeks after her departure fever of a Typhoid character began to make its appearance amongst the Immigrants & continued to prevail during the remainder of the voyage — On her arrival at Port Philip she was immediately put under Quarantine A spot was selected for a Quarantine ground — Tents were pitched for their reception, & in a few days the entire of the passengers were landed, & the Quarantine regulations strictly enforced — One camp was destined for the accommodation of the healthy, & the other for that of the sick, all intercourse between them being strictly interdicted — but few new cases appeared after their being landed, the sick gradually recovered, & on the 1st of June the Immigrants in the healthy camp were liberated from Quarantine & obtained situations The convalescents & healthy in the sick camp were removed over to the clean camp & kept separated from the few not quite recovered — On the 13th of June those in the healthy camp were likewise liberated, & the few remaining convalescents were on the 20th removed from the Quarantine ground to the vicinity of Melbourne, all appearance of sickness having for some weeks previous ceased to exist & on the 1st July they were all disposed of — There were 52 persons either actually sick or convalescent when the immigrants first came on shore —

John Patterson.
