The agreement made on the part of the Government with Mr. David Howie and his party, at this time is simply this – that as soon as circumstances permit; after his return to Kings Island, the utmost diligence is to ~~be~~ be employed to collect all the remains that may now be recoverable, and to inter them ~~in one place~~ as far as practicable in one place. That the same duty should be performed with reference to any remains that may from time to time be cast up, or become uncovered on the coast as long as Mr. Howie's party remains, in the vicinity. That some kind of record of the number of bodies so recovered should be kept, and upon its being satisfactorily shewn to such
