SUBSEQUENT HISTORY OF RELATIONS.

Child-
 Father- James Hawkins, Not known
 Mother- Annie Donovan, Servant, of Mrs. Anderson
 167 Victoria Parade. City of
 Relations- This child was brought before the Court by the Mother who states that she is a Native of Ireland and that she came to Melbourne from Adelaide last year when she found that she was pregnant she lived at service since she came here and since the child was born has paid for the keep out of her wages but the demand is too heavy for her to meet and she has been unable to get employment with the child which causes her to speak with for a time.

Mother's address, 515 Albert Street, East Melbourne 28/4/91. Accused 1/91. Mother's name, Mrs. S. Donovan. Mother 207 Linn St. City, made application for her daughters discharge, but it was refused, as the police report that she is not in a position to provide for it. 29/1/92. 21 2 92. No Mrs. Garvie called today & enquired about the girl. Says she has been married 10 years. Her husband follows up Govt works & she states they are going up to Island next week. States the reason why she has not enquired all these years is because she was told she could not get her. She cannot so she says read or write. Seems a decent sort of a woman. 27 3 08. WORKING INJURY.
 A young workgirl named Florie Donovan was with a shockingly painful accident on the afternoon in the factory of Messrs. J. & Co. She was engaged in the factory as a packer, and a piece of the hour of doing so was engaged in the packing machine, and as she bent down she hit her head on the top of the machine, and she was caught in some revolving machinery. She was immediately taken to the hospital, and she was treated with a rest, and she was discharged on the 10th of July 1908.
