VALUELESS CHEQUES

Melbourne Court yesterday, before Chapman and Gardiner, a respectable-looking man named L. F. Renehan, was charged on several trademen by various cheques. Prisoner pleaded [illegible] said there were five cases against him who purchased articles of value from Melbourne tradesmen, amounting to £[illegible]. This whole amount was paid, and he would withdraw two of the charges [illegible] on the other three. He made a pathetic appeal to the jury. He said he had been married [illegible] years to the daughter of a respectable [illegible], and that was the first time he had ever been charged with any offence. His wife had caused him to [illegible] his position. Accused was remanded for sentencement, with the other charges cumu-

"		10	4	74	11300	H2.			The management of the school is in all respects highly commendable - classes have again passed an excellent examination.
"		28	8	74	26306	H			A very capable teacher.
"		2	6	76	19658	H2.			One of the best teachers I have known - skilful energetic - diligent.
									Entry on Jr's Certificate "The high opinion of this School which I have before expressed is still amply justified - Mr Reidy has striven to make his School a model of good teaching, and good management, and he has succeeded."
									I think it my duty to recommend that Mr Reidy be awarded a teacher's Honorarium, should a suitable opportunity arise. Ever since I have known his School it has been conducted with unusual ability and success, and in the capacity of Committee's Chairman for the past 4 years I have had almost a monopoly of the prizes.
"		14	12	76	45524	H			A very able teacher - one of the best in my district.
