The Rev. Max von Schramm, who till quite recently had for 50 years been a weekly visitor to the Melbourne Hospital, and also to the Alfred and Children's hospitals since their foundation, died on 18th inst., aged 80, his remains being interred in the Box Hill cemetery on Friday last, and, according to his long expressed desire, privately. He was born in Schleisen, Germany, his father being Heinrich von Schramm, a major in the Reserve German army. One of his ancestors was knighted for saving the life of the Emperor Maximilian in the 16th century, and his brothers won the Iron Cross of Valor in the Franco-Prussian war. He came to Australia in 1852, and soon afterwards settled in Doncaster, where he was appointed teacher of the Denominational school, afterwards the State school. He relinquished this post, and was ordained pastor of the German Lutheran Church at Doncaster by the Rev. Pastor Herlitz, head of that church in Victoria, which charge he held for many years, until age and failing health recently prompted him to retire.
