CHARGE OF CHILD MURDER.

A PITIABLE CASE.

Eileen Alice O'Neill, 21 years of age, a single woman, living with her parents at Keilor; was presented at the Supreme Court Criminal Sittings yesterday, before Mr. Justice A'Beckett, on a charge of having on December 14 murdered her child. Mr. O'Hara Wood appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Ian Macfarlan (instructed by Mr. C. J. Macfarlane) for the defence.

Evidence was called to show that on December 14, after milking a number of cows, and doing some ordinary housework, the accused complained of illness, and asked her young brother, 14 years of age, to harness up the buggy and drive her to the doctor in Essendon. On the way, before reaching the Lincolnshire Arms Hotel, the girl got out of the buggy, taking the rug with her. She went across the road, and came back in about a minute. The journey was then resumed, and the accused saw Dr. H. J. Cahill, who found that she had just given birth to a child. He attended to her. She informed him that the child had been born in the buggy, coming into town, and was in the water near the Lincolnshire Arms Hotel. She told him, the child had not moved, and thought it was dead when born. Mrs O'Leary went back in the buggy, and covered the body in a waterhole by the road.

Dr. Cahill (government pathologist) examined the body of the child. It had breathed, but was in muddy water. There was no mark of violence on it. It appeared to be a mature
