GAOL BEFORE ASYLUM.

WOMAN'S WISH GRATIFIED.
 Mary Gotsil, an elderly woman, appeared before the City Court today on a charge of having no visible lawful means of support.
 Constable Besant testified that defendant had asked him to lock her up, as she had no friends.
 Defendant explained that ten months ago she was in the Coburg Gaol, from there coming to Bendigo as an inmate of the Benevolent Asylum. Last Thursday morning she left the asylum, and on the two following mornings appeared in court for being drunk and disorderly. She pleaded not to be sent back to the asylum, and said she would rather go to gaol.
 The Bench: How long do you want to be sent up for?
 Defendant: You may send me for life.
 Asked by the bench what was wrong with the asylum, defendant made a long rambling statement of grievances, and finished up by reiterating that she preferred the gaol as a place of abode.
 The Bench: Well, we send you to gaol for the maximum term, twelve months.
 Defendant: I hope I won't live that long.

7208 Agnes Ferry

MOTHER MURDERS BABY.

DEATH SENTENCE RECORDED.

HORSHAM, Tuesday.—Agnes Ferry, a young unmarried girl was charged at the Supreme Court to-day, before Mr. Justice A'Beckett, with having murdered an infant at Dimboola on November 3. Mr. G. A. Maxwell (instructed by Mr. Hogan, of Dimboola) appeared to defend.

The case for the Crown was that on November 30, accused gave birth to an illegitimate female child at the residence of Dr. Phillips, by whom she was employed. The body of the infant was subsequently found in an outhouse in a lane at Dimboola in a fairly advanced state of decomposition. A stay-lace had been wound round the neck, and accused, when questioned by Detective Murray, said that she had tied the cord, but that she did not know what she was doing at the time. Dr. Ingram, who made a post-mortem examination, said that death was due to strangulation.

The jury, after a brief retirement, found a verdict of guilty, with a strong recommendation to mercy.

Mr. Justice A'Beckett said that the recommendation would be given due weight. He formally imposed the death sentence.

The girl, who showed signs of collapse, was escorted from the dock by a relative and a nurse.
