Public Works Office

Melbourne 16th Dec. 1847.

The Contractor for night Work "Benjamin Rusell" having failed to fulfil his Contract, "James Cuser" was the only man procurable, who could perform the Work; and from the circumstance of the Cess Pool having been overflowing for one month, from its not being emptied, from Rusell's delay, I consider that the extra charge over and above the Contract sum is fair and reasonable.

Benjamin Rusell's Bond for the due performance of the Contract is in the hands of the Crown Solicitor for recovery.
