Robert William Shreeve —

Born 1818 in Norfolk

146 = c.3824 Carngham — Hd. Mr. 5 May 1856 to 30 June 1856

THE death of the late Mr. Robert William Shreeve, who had attained the ripe age of 81 years, adds one more to the list of those who deserve to be ranked amongst the pioneers of Stawell as regards all good social, temperance and religious progress. The departed gentleman was one of refined manners and cultured intellect and in whatever different positions he filled during his long colonial life and exprperience ever merited general appreciation. Mr. Shreeve settled at Stawell about 25 years ago, and was a staunch adherent of the Wesleyan congregation. His two daughters were married, respectively, to Mr. Ralph Dalkin, of Stawell, who in addition to other responsible positions holds that of auditor to the Stawell Shire, and the other to Mr. James Walker, of Williamstown. Mr. Shreeve came to the colony in the year 1849, landing, first, at Geelong and was occupied as a school teacher at Carngham, living afterwards at Ballarat, and finally settling at Stawell, where his good and peaceful life terminated after a useful, yet unostentatious career. The funeral takes place this afternoon, as elsewhere notified.

Died 4 October 1898 at Stawell

SHREEVE.—On the 4th October at Shirreff-str[illegible] Stawell, Robert William Shreeve, native of Norfolk, England; aged 80 years and 11 months.
