FLEMINGTON.—At this court on Monday, before Messrs. J. Davies and T. Napier, Frederick Hayden was charged with assaulting Charles E. Heath at the Flemington Common School on the 24th ult. The complainant is the son of Mr. George Heath, of Ascot Vale, and a scholar in the above school. The complainant stated the case to the Bench as follows:—He was late in his attendance at school on the above date, for which he was punished by some strokes on his hand, on which he ran out of school. The defendant brought him back, and further punished him by beating him on the legs. The father, mother, and sister of complainant gave evidence as to the severity of the beating. Two female assistants stated that the beating the boy received was not excessive, nor half as much as he deserved; they had seen boys beaten much worse. The defendant acknowledged to beating the boy, but not too severely. The Bench, not being able to agree, dismissed the case. Argus 7/1/71
