Roll No. | Classification. | Authority.

1852 Spec^d minute by I.G. on 97/58316 for entry of D.I.'s remarks on teacher's License. Copy of entry on L. "The pupils in Mr. Crooke's Book-keeping class shew a good knowledge of Book keeping and are evidently under efficient instruction."

Second Yr's Inspection – On L. "The class under Mr. Crooke's management has passed an excellent examination. The instruction is of a suitable character, and very good discipline is maintained."
S^d Chas. Tynan. 1880–

Third Yr's Inspection. On L – "Mr. Crooke has again succeeded in securing a high result in his class, the pupils of which have acquitted themselves creditably at the recent examination –" S^d Chas. Tynan – 1881 —

Fourth Yr's Inspection. On L – "The 3rd and 6th classes under the management of Mr. Crooke, have passed an excellent examination, and are evidently under satisfactory instruction." Chas. Tynan – 1882

1883. D.I. Craig. "As teacher of the State Night School No. 1490 North Fitzroy – Mr. Charles Crooke, showed satisfactory skill, and more than ordinary powers of maintaining order and attention." —

Tynan. "Night School 1852 is conducted in a satisfactory manner. Mr. Crooke maintains discipline and secures good order and attention on the part of the pupils."

1883 – Tynan. "Mr. Crooke is an able and efficient teacher and by his ability has contributed materially to the markedly successful result of this yr's examination."

21 1 90 Holland. "Ex^d Night School 1852 South Melbourne in 1888 – Considering the disadvantages under which night schools labour, the work of the pupils was good and the general result of exam^n — satisfactory. The conduct of scholars was noticeably quiet and orderly. –"
