B. O. 23 11 71 14840 A 988 One months results deducted for inaccuracies in rolls —

Brodribb 26 3 74 9608 H Not a good teacher in any respect. Her untidiness is such as to make one think that the cleansing process would be useful. Perhaps she would do better as Assistant Teacher & by such change the school interests [illegible] might be advanced. School rooms & appliances all dirty. Time Table [illegible] to classification tolerable. Children fairly occupied. Penmanship better than last time, evidently taught carelessly. Class [illegible] better than last time. Class 4 weak in spelling, [illegible] tables, notation & geography. Grammar almost nil. Infants fairly taught. Discipline satisfactory at this visit.

Teacher censured for dirty state of premises. Attention drawn to Cir: 74/9 & informed that if a similar report be again received she will be fined. —

Brodribb 3 12 73 34247 H Not successful as a teacher, and slovenly in her person.

Brodribb 7 5 75 15392 H. Very fussy — not very neat in her surroundings or person — not successful in her work.

" 27 9 75 31243 H2. Classification moderate — programme followed — discipline fair — her school ever since I have known it, has been indifferently taught.

Teacher informed of unfavourable nature of D. I.s report and that an improvement in the general management of the school must be effected.

76/17594 Permanent Certificate to be withheld pending satisfactory report.

Brodribb 16 5 76/17921 H. Her success in teaching is very moderate.

77/3928k. Cautioned that unless she exhibit improvement in the discharge of her duties her removal will be necessary.

" 7 3 77/17/9475 H. a poor teacher.

	Swindley	2 8 77/31113 H2.	A skilful teacher — appears to be giving more time & attention to his school than at previous visits.
	M.O. 5660.	11. 2 78/5963.	Board of Inquiry having investigated Mr. Hamilton's claim for wrongful dismissal from 981 School considered same unsubstantiated. Bd. refused to sanction Hamilton's dismissal until the hostility of the Local Committee was found to be detrimental to the School. As L.C. were virtually his employers Board considered that Mr. H. should have endeavoured to have rendered his relations with them more satisfactory.
