RECEIVING. 10/12/07
Henry Goldstone, 42 years of age, had been found guilty of receiving.
The accused said he had been 27 years in the colony. He had worked hard all his life, and he threw himself on the mercy of the court.
His Honor said that he had come to the conclusion that the accused had been carrying on a business as a receiver for a long time. He was more deserving of punishment than the thieves themselves. The offence was a serious one, easy to carry out in a small shop, and very difficult to detect. He could be imprisoned for five years, with hard labor.

RAILWAY OFFICER SHOT.

ACCUSED SENT TO GAOL.
Conrad at 11/10/77
 FOUR YEARS' IMPRISONMENT.
 Thomas Joseph Young, who, on Wednesday last was found guilty of wounding with intent Mr Samuel Jones, General Superintendent of Transportation of the Victorian Railways, in October, was to-day, in the Criminal Court, presented to receive sentence.

Late in the afternoon of the 3rd October last Mr Jones was talking to a friend in Collins street. Suddenly two shots were fired, and Mr Jones felt two sharp stinging pains in the back.

Accused, who was standing close by with a revolver in his hand, made off. He was followed and arrested.

Mr Jones was taken to a private hospital, where he remained for many weeks.

Young had, at one time, been in the railway service, but had been discharged. A few weeks before the shooting occurred he had applied to be re-employed, and had received in reply a letter signed by Mr Jones, stating that his application could not be granted.

The accused had nothing to say.

His Honor said that the accused had tried to murder Mr Jones, a man who had done him no harm, by firing at him twice with a revolver, and the only earthly justification that had been put forward was that of insanity. The man knew perfectly well what he was doing, and intended to kill Mr Jones. Even if he suffered from attacks of lunacy he would be better in gaol than in wandering about taking fits and shooting people. He would be sentenced to four years' imprisonment with hard labor.

UNLAWFUL WOUNDING.
John Richard Gray, 43 years of age, canister-handler in the tinsmithing trade, had been found guilty of unlawfully wounding.
The accused said that for four years he had been suffering from epilepsy, and as he remembered nothing about the wounding, he reckoned he was in a fit at the time.
His Honor stated that the accused had already been twice convicted this year, once of indecent behavior, and once for a minor offence. In this case the barman had refused him drink, because he was very drunk, and then he stabbed the barman in the stomach. He would be sentenced to two years' imprisonment, with hard labor.

EVENING, DECEMBER

OFFENDERS DEALT WITH.

SENTENCES IN CRIMINAL COURT.

In the Criminal Court to-day Mr Justice Hood presided, and passed sentence on a number of persons who had pleaded guilty or had been found guilty at the present sittings of the court.

HOUSEBREAKING.
Thomas Kressy, 21 years of age, baker, had pleaded guilty to a charge of housebreaking.

Mr Cole made a plea for leniency, and produced letters from four former employers of the accused, referring to him in favorable terms.

His Honor allowed the prisoner out on his own recognisance of £20 and one surety of £20 to come up for sentence when called on.

INDECENT ASSAULT.
George Carmichael, 21 years of age, laborer, had been found guilty of indecent assault.

Mr Levy, who appeared for the accused, stated that the accused had been a good son.

His Honor said that the accused had been a very bad man in the matter which he was accused of. His own statement showed him to be a wicked-minded blackguard. The sentence of the court would be imprisonment for eighteen months.
