733 Bolam 24 8 75 26225 knows his work very well, but I cannot report him as industrious. He appears to me to do merely what he is absolutely required to do, and to take little interest in the school. There are many indications of this.

H. informed of D. Is report as to records being carefully and untidily kept. Admitted that if such errors and inaccuracies are reported again he will be liable to be fined.

" 6 3 77/12997 H. Has a very fair knowledge of his work. but is naturally disposed to exert himself as little as possible.

Symon 3 7 78/22404 H. Is inclined to be lazy - is decidedly slovenly.

H. informed of the D. Is report relative to his want of punctuality in commencing school work. Warned that similar unpunctuality will render him liable to be fined or removed to a smaller school.

84/24040 } No complaint of Mr. Seymour of the ill-treatment of her son.
84/2426 } by H. J. & D. J. report derogatory. - Mr. Gardiner was informed that his conduct in adopting such a very improper & reprehensible mode of punishing pupils as that which it is shown he made use of in the case of Mr. Seymour's son, was a gross offence - & that it has been decided to suspend him a fine of five pounds (£5) for the offence - Continued against being guilty of any similar conduct in future. - Mr. Gardiner appeals against decision; Mr. D. J. 10/2/82 was informed that the case has been laid before the Hon. the Minister, who, in view of the fact that the boy Arthur Seymour was thrown down & kicked, when on the ground, considers that any case against him which has been suggested would not adequately express the sense entertained of Mr. Gardiner's conduct.
