	"	22 3 77/11340 H.	He can teach tolerably well — in some respects is very unsatisfactory — does not seem to secure the respect of his neighbours.
	"	24 7 78/26029 H	Not a satisfactory teacher by any means.
	Stewart	18 3 79/11050 H.2	Appears a capable teacher, but he does not exert himself as he should
	"	13 12 78-79/5494 H.	Appears a fair average teacher of a country school
	"	3 9 79/35124 H.	Able to teach — showed more life than formerly
		8 3 81/11070 H.2.	Stewart. "Does not exert himself: is lazy. Would recommend his removal.
		. . 81/11070. H.	Attention called to unfavorable nature of D.I's report on the work of the school generally, & informed that it is clear that the unsatisfactory state of the school is attributable to his want of zeal & diligence in the discharge of his duties, & warned that a succession of unfavorable reports renders him liable to removal to a less desirable position.
		15 4 80/14455. H.2.	Stewart. — "I believe him to be lazy — were his work what it should be, the school, in my opinion would be greatly improved — a removal would be, I think, beneficial."
		25 8 80/33064 H.	Stewart. — Mr. Scott does not improve — The school would be benefitted by a change" —
		17 8 81/37849 H.	Stewart. Should pay more attention to his P.D. in the Art of Teaching. He might be more neat & tidy in his dress.
		. . 82/7384.	School struck off 31 March 1882.
		14 3 82/11892 H.2	Stewart. — Does not work satisfactorily. I wd recommend his removal. — The school is losing ground. —

		5 7 82/26477 H.	Stewart. "Not a successful teacher; his dress gives him a slovenly appearance.
		14 3 83/10153 H.2	" — Mr. Scott's work does not show any substantial improvement. The improvt. in his dress is very noticeable. His work is unsatisfactory. —
		5 84/11629 83/8777	Attention again called to the unfavorable character of D.I's report. Mr. Scott informed that it is hoped his promise of increased zeal will be strictly carried out, & that he will strenuously exert himself to effect such an improvt. in the state of the school as may obviate the necessity of removing him to a less important position.
		11 7 83/25714 H.	Stewart. Shows somewhat better work, but it falls short of what it should be. —
