Roll. No.	Classification	Authority	Remarks.
1552	III	24 7 04 H. Dean	Has managed the school satisfactorily under difficult circumstances the classn is, however, too high in some cases (in class IV). Training of the P.Ts is more satisfactory than at previous visit. He has taught Class VI well. 81.
		- - 05 3822	:- Fined £1 for neglect of duty in repeatedly and persistently failing to reply to Departmental communications Censured for same neglect.
		- - 05 4896	:- Fined £3 and Censured for his neglect to properly instruct his P.Ts. and failing to reply to Dept's correspondence.
		2 5 05 H. Betheras	:- Exercises a good power of drill control over his school but his supervision of his staff teachers in their work is not effective. His class teaching is good. His school records were not up to date. He may be classed as a fair teacher. 69. fair. (prov.)
		. . 06 3451	Transferred 23 April 1906.
1601		. . 06 3451	Appt'd H.T. from 24 April 1906.
		6 3 06 H. Dean	:- Teaches classes V & VI. and cannot give much time to supervision. His health has improved, and he is now taking greater interest in his work. His teaching is sound. 84 good.
		21 7 05 H. Betheras	(1552) His school is not above the commonplace either in ideals or standard of efficiency. His class teaching is better than his general management. He is a teacher of fair ability. 68. Fair.
	III.1.11	30 6 06 In. Roll
		13 8 06 H. Eddy	:- Two months in charge - he took charge under disadvantageous circumstances. He is desirous of improving the condition of the school but I think he will require to put more energy and system into his teaching and management to accomplish that end. Seems to be a good class teacher. N.E. postponed.
		15 10 06 12020 (1552)	Fined £3 & Censured for failure to reply to official correspondence.
		1 3 07 H. Eddy	:- A good class teacher but needs to be more vigilant, energetic & systematic in the general management of the school. He appears to be well liked by his pupils, but the discipline might be firmer. 78. Good (Prov.)
		21 5 07 6371	:- Fined £1 for further neglect to reply to official correspondence and for the neglect to give the necessary instruction to the junior teacher & Cautioned not to give occasion for similar complaints in future.
		29 8 07 H. Eddy	:- His classes have passed in the main a satisfactory examination. In general management he has been placed at a disadvantage owing to inadequate staff. Interest fair. Discipline might be firmer. Care of buildings fair. 77. Good
		15 5 08 H. Ware	:- I did not see much of his teaching as he was busy reorganizing the school. His discipline is good. N.E. deferred.
		7 8 08 H. Dean	:- His management is fair - does not sufficiently allot details to his staff, but endeavours to attend to them himself; has erred in having an unduly high classification of his pupils, has been heavily handicapped by having only inexperienced J.Ts. on his staff & by poor accommodation. 73. Good.
		2/3 3 09 H. "	:- Has not proved equal to the task of managing a school of 350-400 under abnormal conditions; he is always busy but his efforts are not properly directed; the order maintained is generally good but the attitude of the pupils towards the work may be much improved. 70. Fair.
	III. 2.9	30 6 09 In. Roll
		20 8 09 H. Russell	Shows very fair capacity as a class teacher; he has too little to do in the VI class which occupies him. His management is fair; his influence for good is not striking; there are signs of want of definite help and guidance among the staff. 72 Good.
		25 2 10 H. Cavanagh	Does not exercise enough influence throughout the school, is rather a class teacher than a H.T. does not get unison of aim from his staff; rather slack in management. Is not paying enough attention to training of J.Ts (H.T. had received word of a serious accident to his son the morning I visited school). 72. Good.
		16 8 10 H. "	A teacher with a pleasing benevolent manner towards his pupils & staff; pays much attention to his school work, and delivers their lessons in good style but he does not perform his duties as H.T. efficiently, acts as the class teacher of the Fourth, and does not make his influence felt throughout the school. He does not make his school an organized whole. It is evident that there is not a master mind controlling and directing the work of the whole school. His easiness leads to slackness of effort and sometimes, disorder where his presence is felt. He suffers much from insomnia. 68. Good.
		. . 10 14414	Retired 10 January 1911. Service - 40 Yrs 10 days Av. Sal. last 3 years - £270.0.0
