The late Case of Indecent Assault.—The prisoner Costello, charged with indecently assaulting two little girls, named respectively Mary Hepburn and Mary Ann Tacey, was examined at the Buckland Police Court on 2nd May, before Mr Alley, P.M., and Mr P. Cane, J.P. The evidence in this case was quite unfit for publication. The children were both under 12 years of age. The prisoner was fully committed for trial on both charges to the General Sessions, to be held in Beechworth on the 5th August next. Bail was allowed by the magistrates, himself in £200 and two sureties in £100 each, in either case. The prisoner, however, was unable to procure bail, and was brought to Beechworth [illegible] morning's coach.

DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT OF A TEACHER.

At the Beechworth Sessions on Tuesday, Joseph Costello, teacher of the Buckland school, was informed against for indecently assaulting Mary Hepburn, [illegible]. The evidence of the [illegible] the teacher was drunk the day of the [illegible] that his conduct was of a revolting character. The jury found a verdict of guilty. Costello, on being called up for sentence, threw himself on the mercy of the Court for the sake of his wife. The judge said the prisoner had himself shown very little mercy to his wife. He would not sentence him to flogging, but still he deserved a severe punishment for so shamefully abusing so solemn a trust as the care and education of young children. There was no excuse whatever. The sentence of the Court was that he be imprisoned, without hard labour, for three years; the first week in each alternate month to be spent in solitary confinement.

Roll No.	Classification	Authority
1567		1 11 15 H. Burgess	Owing to causes stated at length in my report the school has not passed as good an exam. as it should have done. The Arithmetic is remarkably weak. Grammar also is weak. Improvements have been made in some matters of organization. There is much retardation in this school. A very good teacher. 85
		14 3 16 H "	Has made some innovations that are likely to have good results e.g. Parents' day and medical lectures. The organization of the school demands further attention. Retardation is rife. Has evidently not attended effectively to classification in the past. A very good teacher (barely) 85
		4 12 16 H. ---	May be classed as a very good teacher, though there are defects in his management and in his work as a teacher. He has been on the whole attentive to his duties. The classification of the school seems better. 85
		9 7 17 H "	Has made efforts to improve the condition of the school and has remedied some defects. Is a man of considerable force and could do still better work. His dealings with the War Relief Fund moneys have not been creditable to his good sense or his capacity for business like management. A good teacher. 84
		14 12 17 H "	His school is in improved condition. He has worked hard to remedy defects and with some success. Is a very good teacher. 88
