2462		26	7	07 H	Fenwick		:- Not a skilful infant mistress but does good fair plain work. Try by day to the best of her ability. Has horses provided & piano for her room. T.G.
		29	4	08 H	Burgess		:- Is active and hardworking. She has aimed at applying kindly for infant class teaching. Her manner while strenuous is not as unobtrusive as is desirable. Her methods are well conceived but do not show to the best advantage owing to a lack of quiet confidence in the class. She is however doing good work and manages satisfactorily. T.G. Good.
		13	7	08 H	"	"	:- Thought hardworking & intelligent. She is not naturally suited for infant class teaching. Her manner is not sympathetic & impressive & consequently her methods though well conceived are not effective. She is fairly good as a hardworking teacher. She impresses me as being conscientious & of fair capability. Her teaching needs to be more definite & her manner more sympathetic. At present she is a fair teacher. The discipline of her class is satisfactory. T.G. Fair.
	V. 2. 27	30	6	09 H.	Durr.	Roll	A fairly good teacher who works hard & conscientiously. It appears to be unwise to interfere in her work & on the whole improved more favourably. She would be better off in a high infant class under teaching & altogether a most unsympathetic manner. T.G. Good.

Miss Hughes was seen on returning & she remarked that the children were very quiet & orderly during her absence. She appears to be more successful with the younger children. T.G. Good.
