						Hard: Your work was seen to-day but in some cases there were signs that Mr Chalmers was not ready with his work. Does not make sufficient use of class lessons as a definite aim - is not thorough 58 fair
		23	7	95	23038 H.	Jobs: Of fair ability only. Not fully interested in his work. Want of definiteness noticeable in his teaching as tested. Class combined with are apparently least of interest has produced no good results. 53 fair
		9	12	95	36006 H.	Informed him that unless there is satisfactory evidence at next inspection when 10. I will be asked to make a special report on his teaching & management that he has been making well directed sustained efforts to raise his school to a proper standard of efficiency. I may be found necessary to report to Commencement
		26	2	96	6279 H.	Visit: Of good ability. Has appeared to greater advantage to-day. A decided improvement noticeable in his teaching. 74 fair
		13	7	96	21479 H.	Jobs: Has worked hard with a discouraged result. Does not seem to have gauged the forms of his scholars well and his work has lacked promise of permanent impression. The case he has taken of Evidence grounds. The trouble in making approaches other interests this work. I think his failings are due rather to inability to drive home work than to carelessness 58 fair
	V. 3. 99	30	6	97	To Roll
		4	8	97	25470 H.	Jobs: His work is again unsatisfactory. He appears to work hard but with very little judgment. He is not careful in the details of his subjects and so misses success. I do not think that he should be from a V class school seeing that for the past 2 or 3 years his work has been unsatisfactory. Some 12 months ago I visited for inspection and was pleased with the Graphic Notes taken and the improvement. But this has not been kept up and I am forced to the conclusion that either the teacher has little ability for his work or that he is careless in applying himself 46 Moderate
		15	9	98	9969 H.	Jobs: His school is very unsatisfactory. There is an absence of care in details in every branch of School work, and in his observance of the regulations, and his care of the buildings He appears to lack faithfulness in his work. Faults that have been pointed out on former occasions still exist. With the opportunities he has had he should do exactly better work. His school cannot compare in merit with the schools in his neighbourhood, taught by his juniors. His work is certainly not up to the standard which a V class teacher should do. 58 fair

3272		22	3	15	H Lowry	A fair teacher doing his best. He teaches with much earnestness & industry but relies too much on statement & seems unable to keep the moral activities of his pupils in profitable play. His presence good organising capability and maintains a very good discipline. 70
		28	6	15	H	A fair teacher. He works hard but his range is narrow and even within it his effectiveness is limited. His teaching appeals mainly to the memory and does not sufficiently stimulate the intelligence of his pupils. – His indifferent health & the disturbed conditions of working explain some of this deficiency. His organization is complete & his discipline very good. 69
	V. 3. 4	28	6	15	4th Roll	A fair teacher. He keeps hard at it & teaches as to appeal sufficiently to the intelligence of his pupils. He relies too much on direct statement & repetition for effect. His organisation is fair. His discipline is very good but the tone of his school is scarcely so. 69
		3	10	16	H Lowry
		16	10	16	H	A fair teacher. His individuality is not very pronounced. His teaching makes little appeal to other than memory. His questions & sentences have many patterns worse. His organisation is satisfactory on the mechanical side but is wanting in vigour. His discipline is very good, but the tone of the school is scarcely so. 69

	V. 3. 3	26	6	18	3rd Roll
						Transferred 31 December 1918.
1105			8	8	73	Appld Jun. from 1 January 1919 – $13 (Act 2)13.
		12	5	19	H Lowry	A very fair teacher. He gets a good deal done in his school & the children are industrious. He needs to concentrate more on one class in each less on groups. His preparation for his work is generally satisfactory. His methods are good & his discipline is well kept in good condition. Discipline good. 73
		24	3	20	H J.P. Bothwood	Works earnestly but is only a fair organiser & teacher. The premises are kept in good order. The teacher is on good terms with his pupils. 70
		11	6	20	H	Good progress is shown by most of the pupils. He works earnestly apparently but his classification of pupils is open to doubt on two cases. A good teacher. 71
	V. 3. 1	24	6	21	3rd Roll
		6	9	21	H J.P. Bothwood	A considerable amount of weakness exists in the School. He is not a strong teacher, nor strong physically. He work is disappointing, but the teacher is trained. 73
		2	6	22	H	Not a strong teacher. Organization is defective & teaching ability moderate. The class work done is generally on the weak side tries to do his best. Needs more patience in dealing with children. 73
		9	6	22	22/5147	Cautioned against repetition of harsh treatment of pupils as a disciplinary measure to be transferred
						Transferred 15 August 1922.
1062				22	66 13	Appld Jun. from 16 August 1922. $136 (Act 2)13.
		20	10	22	H Gill	He is an honest earnest worker who is commanding steadily against set backs. His lessons might be more stimulating & a stronger effort is required to demand from his pupils 75
		20	3	23	H	Suffers at times from bodily weakness but is cheerful & optimistic & very willing to guide his best & takes advantage of suggestions. Seems to be broadening in outlook 78
		12	7	23	H	He is a painful honest worker who is commanding steadily against set backs. Takes advantage of suggestions & is making his teaching more stimulating 79
		13	5			Is gaining his best efforts [illegible] in his teaching & is rewarded in full measure. His discipline [illegible] methods are still rather formal but he is [illegible] from suggestion. 81
	V. 3. 1	27	6	24	3rd Roll	His display earnestness in his work & gives his best to his pupils. His manner is quiet & reserved & he is not regarded as [illegible] preparation. His management is effective & work proceeds profitably lessons were carefully directed. [illegible] will gain a second a painful amount. 82
		11	5	25	[illegible]	He is a conscientious, earnest worker, showing [illegible] interest in his work but has been [illegible] by indifferent health. Preparation [illegible] & lessons are well presented but require [illegible] The more prominent should be corrected during the [illegible] 81
