| Roll No. | Classification. | Authority. | Remarks. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 2689 | | 8 8 96 20038H | Sale: A neat teacher but fusses one the idea that she is fairly industrious. Methods below fair - has evidently had a bad P.T. training & then been drafted to a small school. Reared the better under a poor H.T. 48 Moderate. |
| | | 16 10 96 28278 H. | Cautioned that, if there is not reasonable Evidence that she has been working diplomatically & diligently to improve her general management, it may be found necessary to refer her case to P.S.I. Boards under Sec 12 P.S. Act 1890, to be dealt with for inefficiency |
| | | 1 7 96 22226H | Sale: A neat teacher. Voice has been but that is still good. Is very anxious to improve, but I do not think that he has much natural capacity for teaching 58 fair. |
| | | 25 9 96 30497H | Baker: A neat teacher: overweighted with her present School. Has improved during the past 4 years but her school is still weak Works carefully & well but has not much natural ability for teaching Nearly all the suggestions I have made for the better carrying out of her duties have been carefully adopted. Organ[n] fair. Mat[l] fair Discipline + tone good 58. |
| | | 25 4 97 13879H | Dale: A neat teacher who will, I think, not do more than moderate to fair work in a small school unless she has some practice in a good school as assistant, & her work constantly supervised. Willing & industrious, but her work is not thorough enough & not "educative" Any hints I have given her have been acted upon to the best of her ability, but she needs much more constant training than an Inspector can give. I do not think that at present she is efficient enough to conduct a V class school effectively. I estimate her natural ability for teaching as below fair. Organ fair. Instruction fair. Discipline very fair 60 fair. |
