POLICE PURSUE PRISONER

FORGED CHEQUES PASSED

SALE, Saturday.
It is believed that the police are on the track of Frederick Saunders, who escaped last month from the Sale Gaol. Prior to his arrest in May, Saunders had been working for Mr W. Thorburn, at Boolarra, in the Morwell district, and was committed for trial on a charge of having stolen goods from Westcott's store at Boolarra. About a week ago Mr Thorburn's house was entered, and several blank cheques were taken from his cheque book. Last Saturday evening three cheques for five, six, and seven guineas respectively, purporting to have been signed by W. Thorburn, were passed on Morwell tradesmen, small purchases being made at each store visited. The forgeries were detected at the Bank of Australasia on Tuesday, Monday being a bank holiday; but by that time the man who passed the cheques could not be found. At one store the man bought a pair of boots, and the police afterwards found a well-worn pair in the vicinity of Morwell.
